

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Applicants respectfully request examination of the application taking into account the preliminary amendment to the claims provided by this submission. No new matter is believed to claimed, as the disclosure fully supports the inventive concept as claimed.

The claims submitted by this amendment now correspond to claims in the related application filed under the Patent Cooperation Treaty and determined by the International Preliminary Examining Authority as being directed to an invention with industrial applicability and constituting a novel and inventive step. Similar favorable consideration is requested of this application.
